GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC

BILL IS MAKING SLOW PROGRESS.

Action of Conservatives Delaying Railway Operations.

(Bulletin Special Dispatch.)

Ottawa, September 23.—The Grand Trunk Pacific railway discussion was on all day yesterday. Very slow progress is being made.

The opposition wanted a traffic agreement with the Grand Trunk railway as well as with the Grand Trunk Pacific railway. The government held that the agreement was not necessary. The Grand Trunk would probably not give it and the effect would be to unduly delay active operations.

GRAIN QUOTATIONS.

Fort William wheat, No. 1 hard, 85 cents a bushel.

Winnipeg oats, No. 2 white, 30 cents a bushel.

Principal James Laidson and Dr. J. C. McLennan, of Toronto University, left this morning for the south. Principal Laidson had never visited the west before and is astounded at its practically boundless size. He had the idea that Calgary was the next station after Winnipeg. Both gentlemen are greatly pleased with their western trip.

DONATION DAY.

The first day of October is Donation Day to the Edmonton public hospital. Anything will be accepted and it is sincerely hoped that the donations will be liberal.

A special meeting of the city council will be held this evening to appoint an additional policeman on the Edmonton police force. The matter was first brought up at the regular council meeting on Wednesday of last week, but owing to a very large number of applications being in for the position, it was decided to refer it to the police committee to bring in a report at a special meeting held on Saturday night. The committee were not unanimous in their choice of a policeman and the meeting adjourned until this evening when the matter will be taken up before a full meeting of the council. Meanwhile matters are going along quite smoothly with only two policemen on duty.

W. H. Walter is in Edmonton today from Wisconsin. Mr. Walter has two sons who came into this district in the spring and he is thoroughly pleased with the produce his sons have raised this year. Mr. Walter leaves in a day or two for Wisconsin and will make immediate preparations to return here with his family.

LOCAL.

—The river is very low at present.

—D. R. Fraser and Company received another drive of logs from up the river this week.

—A number of Edmonton men left today to attend the Fort Saskatchewan Rifle Association's annual shoot.

—Two new houses are in course of erection on Donald Ross's flat, southwest of the Dowling Milling Company's elevator.

—Messrs. Robert and Crockett's livery stable, on First street, south of the Windsor hotel, was opened the first of the week.

—Mr. Crawford, formerly with A. Bruce Powley has opened a jewelry store in the store formerly occupied by Wm. C. Pratt, on Jasper avenue west.

—The color of the leaves on the trees has entirely changed the past week. They are now a bright yellow and the trees have a late fall like appearance.

—A large number of American land seekers are already in Edmonton and district looking over the country. The great majority of the land seekers will arrive next month.

—The sisters of the general hospital tender their sincere thanks to the following donors: Edmonton fire brigade, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, C. Hetu, and Messrs. J. Bilodeau, Larue, and D. McNamara.

—Last night's train brought two prisoners, Indians from Ponoka, on their way to Fort Saskatchewan. They were sentenced to one and two months imprisonment respectively on a charge of drunkenness.

—The rush of settlers to the Edmonton district continues unabated. A very large number of American farmers are coming this way and one can scarcely pick up a western United States newspaper without reading of several families starting out for this district.

—Mr. John Bamberg, of Missouri, has been visiting the Edmonton district the past week. He is greatly pleased with the prospects here and says that a large number of German families from his district will settle in the neighborhood of Edmonton this fall and next spring.

—At a meeting of the council of the College of Physicians and Surgeons held at Regina last week the following officers were elected: President, Dr. M. M. C. Seymour, Fort Qu'Appelle; vice president, Dr. A. B. Stewart, Rosthern; registrar, Dr. J. D. Lafferty, Calgary; executive, Dr. G. A. Kennedy, Macleod; R. G. Brett, Banff, and J. D. Lafferty, Calgary.

—D. H. McDonald, M. L. A., Fort Qu'Appelle, leader of the opposition in the Assembly and Miss Frances Benson, eldest daughter of Mrs. Benson and the late Sheriff Benson, were married in St. Paul's church, Regina, on Tuesday last, by Rev. Dean Matheson, of Winnipeg, assisted by Rev. G. C. Hill.

—Mr. J. K. McLean's survey party arrived in Edmonton this morning. Mr. McLean has been engaged on survey outline work for government and his party have been operating in the Blindman Valley, west of Lacombe, where there is an exceedingly fine stretch of country. The party will leave Edmonton on Friday to engage in similar survey work in the neighborhood of Lac La Poudre.

—Mr. J. A. Musson is one of several land seekers in Edmonton today from Iowa. He has travelled extensively through the west the past few weeks and says that the bad weather is everywhere general. He also says that the crops in this district compare favorably with anything he has seen in the west. The size of garden vegetables in this district greatly surprised Mr. Musson. He says that a very large number of settlers from his neighborhood will seek this district in the spring.

—Mr. W. J. McAllister, one of the party of touring British journalists, writes to his paper, the Birmingham Daily Express, as follows: "The tour through Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean has been an unbroken record of excessive delights. If it were possible to present to the mind of Great Britain the picture of individual success following closely in the wake of individual effort, such as has been presented to the gaze of the touring journalists during the last three weeks, there would inevitably be a flow of men and money from Great Britain to this country. The pulse of the Dominion, however, is certain to quicken."

SUCCESSFUL BANQUET

The Toronto University Graduates Hold a very Enjoyable Meeting.

The graduates and undergraduates of Toronto University held a banquet in the Windsor hotel yesterday evening, the occasion being the visit of President London and Dr. J. C. McLennan, of Toronto University.

A very enjoyable time was spent, as a large number of the graduates were present. Mr. K. W. McKenzie was voted to the chair and President London was first called on for an address.

The president dwelt chiefly on the expansion of the university in the scientific and medical departments in recent years. He was pleased to meet with so many of the graduates and undergraduates and assured the gathering of the enjoyment his Edmonton visit had brought him. At no place in the Northwest Territories had the gathering of graduates been so large.

Mr. J. C. McLennan, professor of physics in the university, followed with a speech setting forth the purpose of forming alumni associations in the west, and referred to the work that had already been done by these organizations. It was unanimously decided to form an alumni association in Edmonton. This was proceeded with and the following officers were elected:

Honorary President, P. McG. Barkcr, B.A.
President, J. C. F. Bowd, B.A.
First Vice-president, Rev. D. G. McQueen, B.A.

Second Vice-president, G. B. Henwood, B.A., Wetaskiwin.
Third Vice-president, Dr. Smith.
Fourth Vice-president, Dr. McIntyre, Strathcona.

Secretary Treasurer, Mrs. E. T. Bishop, B.A.

Councillors, T. H. Whitelaw, B.A., M.D.; W. Rea, B.A.; A. Archibald, Ph.D.; W. T. Ashbridge, S. E. Bolton, B.A.; Louis S. A. Dickson, B.A., Fort Saskatchewan; Dr. Jamieson.

WILLFUL MISREPRESENTATION

The weather in the Edmonton district this year has been the worst in the memory of the oldest settlers. Sunny Alberta seems to have gone back on itself, and wet weather has been general. It has also been very chilly and we have had very little hot, sunny weather which in years past led to Alberta being characterized as sunny. Our weather, we repeat, has been bad, but not nearly so disagreeable as that experienced in other parts of the Canadian west and in the western and northwestern states. We have had no bad storms such as have been experienced elsewhere. We have totally escaped the storm centres of the bad weather and seem to have been merely on the verge of the storm and consequently our weather has been comparatively cold, as the storm centre draws in the cold air from the north. The northern states, Manitoba and Assiniboia have been storm wrecked and covered under snow when the Edmonton district has escaped. It is true that on one day, a few flakes of snow fell, but they melted immediately on touching the ground. Other districts have suffered from violent hailstorms which carried great destruction and loss with them. There has been no hail to cause any damage in the Edmonton district this year. Violent electrical storms have been experienced elsewhere, northern Alberta, at least, escaped. We have throughout the season made no attempt to conceal the kind of weather we were receiving and our very frankness in reporting weather as we had it has led other western Canadian newspapers to deliberately and shamelessly libel this district. A few days ago a Calgary paper hinted that the crops in this district had been badly frozen. Of course this in a Calgary paper caused no surprise in Edmonton. For the past twenty-five years these same charges and falsified reports have been hurled at us, but in spite of them the Edmonton district continues to prosper, rapidly assumes the name of being the most prosperous and progressive district in the Territories, and continues to grow the finest grains to be found in the Northwest Territories. We have no quarrel with Calgary. Southern Alberta is an exceedingly fine stretch of country and is being rapidly settled. Why cannot the Calgary people attend to the affairs of their own district and leave the Edmonton district to look after itself. The Ponoka Herald voices the same complaint as follows: "There appears to be an organized gang at Calgary who have no other business than to loaf around the depot and hotels and try to create a prejudice among the immigrants against northern Alberta. Recent arrivals coming through there have been told that there were no matured crops in the district north of Olds and that we had recently been visited by a series of hard frosts. This is perhaps all done in the interests of Calgary district in the hope of checking the tide of immigration that is daily passing through that place."

The action of Calgary people was had enough, but part of a dispatch from Regina to the Winnipeg Tribune is a deliberate lie and was manufactured for no other reason than to misrepresent. The dispatch reads: "Regina, September 16.—The crop report of the western division of the C. P. R., issued today, states that harvesting in many places is finished, but is delayed in parts on account of rain. The Portal section is frost damaged, some wheat being slightly injured, otherwise the conditions are good. From the McLeod and High River sections come excellent reports.

"No damage is reported at Pincher Creek. Fall wheat runs 45 bushels. In the section north of Calgary cutting is going on. Everything is in good condition except around Lacombe, Ponoka and Strathcona, where frost damage to the extent of 60 to 75 per cent is reported. Haying is still going on, but much delayed by wet weather."

The last part of the dispatch is absolutely false. The Bulletin has made extensive inquiries and finds that the damage from frost is trivial. In some sections frost has been experienced, which has done considerable damage to wheat. The wheat was later this year than is usual and thus got the early frost. As far as we can learn there has been no damage to oats, as they were too far advanced to be hurt by the frost. The frost occurred only in scattered localities and principally on low, wet land. Harvest operations in this district generally are nearly completed and there is every promise that the harvest will be abundant. In the Ponoka district the Ponoka Board of Trade has taken considerable pains in looking into the extent of the damage done by the recent frost, and find from careful investigation among the farmers, that it does not exceed ten per cent on the very greatest estimate. Such misrepresentations as are being indulged in cannot fail to do a certain amount of temporary harm, and why such despicable actions should be adopted seems inexplicable.

ALBERTA COLLEGE

Will Open in New Masonic Building October 5th.

Alberta college, Edmonton, will open on Monday, October 5th, in the first storey of the new Masonic hall on Second street, south of Jasper avenue. The building is not yet completed, but a large force of men is being put on the work and it is expected that everything will be in readiness within a week or ten days. The rooms are large and bright and the building conveniently situated. Principal Riddell, who has spent the last couple of months in Winnipeg, has arranged an exceedingly satisfactory curriculum of studies. Cecil E. Race, B.A., an honor graduate of Toronto University and a commercial specialist, will have charge of the commercial work. V. W. Barford will have charge of the musical department. The college, which is commencing under very auspicious circumstances, promises to fill a long felt want in this district.

The school reopened on September 15th, with an attendance of 65 pupils. John Laronde has taken a contract from the Hudson's Bay Company to transport 300 sacks of flour to Athabasca Landing.

The Morinville Milling company ground over 75,000 bushels of wheat this year and built an elevator of a capacity of 60,000 bushels.

Harvest is very nearly over and the crop is satisfactory.

We think the oatmeal mill that the Morinville Milling Company propose building for next year will be a success.

Bulletin correspondence.

Consideration of the Grand Trunk Pacific resolutions was resumed yesterday according to arrangement, the leader of the opposition having returned from his visit to Caledonia Springs, occasioned by illness. He has been absent for two weeks and his loyal followers signalled the occasion by practically holding up business during most of that time.

The discussion of yesterday was on the provision by which the Grand Trunk railway company takes twenty-five millions of common stock in the Grand Trunk Pacific company. This arrangement was arrived at for the purpose of thoroughly identifying the Grand Trunk company with the Grand Trunk Pacific enterprise. Controlling a majority of the stock the Grand Trunk would become responsible for the Grand Trunk Pacific. The opposition professed to see in this a most dangerous tendency towards over-capitalization of the enterprise. Not in the case of any railway chartered during the present session or for the past six years, has the opposition suggested the idea of restricting the capitalization, until the Grand Trunk Pacific project was reached. The total preferred and common stock allowed the company is forty-five millions, which is certainly in more moderate proportion to the cost of the enterprise than in the case of any other railway chartered during that period. There is no doubt that over-capitalization of railways is a great and crying evil in Canada, and it would be a good thing if the opposition even now were to wake up to that evil and make a fight against it. It is remarkable, however, that no fight has been made in the numberless cases of railway charters over which the government had no special control in regard to rates, and could only arrive at what would be fair earnings by taking into consideration the capitalization involved. While in the case of the Grand Trunk Pacific the arrangement between the company and the government at every step is such that the capitalization, whatever it may be, makes absolutely no difference in the arrangement as to government control of rates. That is, based on cost and not on capitalization. The government guarantees interest on bonds of two-thirds of the actual cost between Winnipeg and the coast, therefore it must know what the actual cost is without reference to where the money comes from or how it is procured; and they take security on the whole road and on twenty millions of rolling stock which the company must supply. Here again the value is considered and not how the money was raised. It is the strong feature of the Grand Trunk Pacific bargain that the control of rates is based on cost and not on capitalization. One good object that was attained by the discussion brought on by the opposition, was that this fact was brought out clearly. Mr. Borden's amendment proposing his alternative scheme has not yet been moved, and when it will throw the whole question wide open once more. A number of resolutions of minor importance were passed during yesterday's sitting. Puttee, Labor Liberal of Winnipeg, called the attention of the government to the desirability of protecting workmen's interests on the part of the line to be built by the company. He did not consider that legislation was necessary to make such provision in regard to the part of the line to be built by the government, as the government would be directly responsible to parliament for any failure of that kind.

There have been many interesting and some amusing episodes during the present long drawn out session, but probably the one which will cause the most amusement among the public, and least among the members of parliament, is the stoppage of members' pay by the auditor general. It is certainly a remarkable condition of affairs that the men who are elected to parliament by the voice of the people of the country for the purpose of directing the country's finances, should themselves, by the action of their officials, be unable to get the pay or indemnity to which they are by law entitled. This is the condition which has prevailed since Friday morning last, when the credit for the vote for sessional expenses was exhausted at the bank and the auditor general refused to ask for another credit. Although the incident is unpleasant for members and laughable for the public it is perhaps a good thing it has occurred inasmuch as on one hand it has brought pointedly to the notice of the members of parliament generally the extravagant use which the auditor general systematically makes of the powers with which he is clothed, and on the other gives the opportunity to bring to the notice of the public these same remarkable powers. Time and again, and thousands of times, in all parts of the country, complaints are heard of its government for nonpayment of its accounts or for unduly cutting down accounts that are being paid. The explanation is in most cases that the auditor general is to blame, but this explanation is always considered by the government's creditors as entirely too thin. They want to know what a government exists for if it is not to control its officials. They naturally suggest that under the system of responsible government upon which we pride ourselves there is no escape by the government for responsibility for non-payment, or for short payment of its accounts. The fact is, however, that many years ago there was found to have been too much irregularity in the paying out of public money that it was decided to appoint an officer with extensive and independent powers to act as a check on all expenditure, to be sure that money was not spent that had not been voted, that it was not spent for purposes for which it was not voted, and that it was not paid for purposes for which it was not earned. In order that the official so appointed should be able to discharge his duties without fear or favor he was made practically irresponsible to either parliament or government. That is to say, he cannot be removed from office by the government. It is necessary that this official, called the auditor general, should have extensive powers and in order that he may directly exercise them it is necessary that he should be absolutely independent of political influence. But it is also just as necessary that he should exercise those powers with due regard to the purposes for which they were given him, and to the interests of the public whom he is paid to serve. Instead of his accepting the duties of his position in this spirit, the auditor general has seen fit, particularly of late years, to consider himself as the dictator of the government in all financial matters. Where power was given him for the purpose of protection, he has used it for purposes of aggression; and where it was given him to protect the public interest he has used it against the public interest. No one questions the honesty of purpose of the auditor general, but from year to year he has been gradually getting further out of touch from his viewpoint. In his anxiety to protect the public treasury he has forgotten that it is just as dishonest not to pay money that is actually owing, or to unduly delay its payment, as it is to pay money that is not honestly earned or to pay it before it is earned. In his determination to have everything done as he thinks right, he has from time to time used his power of refusing to ask for letters of credit, thereby stopping payment to creditors of the government until the department affected should come to his view. That is to say, because he disputed a certain account which accrued last month he refused to pay any of the accounts accruing this month. In the present deadlock he has not even this excuse. Some months ago the country was startled to learn that a clerk in the militia department had robbed the government of some seventy thousand dollars. An inquiry was held by disinterested financial experts and they decided that the system of audit should be amended. The government, accepting their view, passed the necessary regulations. These regulations the auditor general objects to and refuses to ask for further letters of credit, as a means of compelling the treasury board, which is a sub-committee of the cabinet, to recede from the position which it has taken. Such an uncharitable exercise, for one purpose, of power given a public official for another purpose, could not be submitted to by a self-respecting government. A bill was, therefore, introduced by the minister of finance providing that when the auditor general fails to ask for a letter of credit the treasury board shall have power to do so. In the discussion which took place on the introduction of the bill, the effort was made by members of the opposition to create the impression that the government was taking from the proper authority of the auditor general. At the same time they were too anxious to get their own money to make any serious objection. This is a sample of their tactics during the whole session, which was to create a false impression in the mind of the country by discussion, but not commit themselves to that position by a vote.

CALGARY CONVENTION

Of Church of England Clergymen was Successful.

The Calgary Diocesan Clerical Conference which closed Thursday night in Calgary is one of the most important developments in the history of the church of England in the Diocese of Calgary. It owes its origin to a resolution passed at the meeting of the synod of the diocese held in July 1902, at which laymen as well as clergy requested the bishop to arrange for a "clerical conference" during this summer. A committee consisting of the Revs. Canon Smith, of Hinchcliffe, Red Deer; B. A. Gray, Edmonton; G. H. Hogbin, St. Dunstan's, Calgary; A. de B. Owen, Kinsook P.H., Macleod; G. H. Webb, Strathcona; S. J. Stockton, Blackfoot Reserve; R. A. Robinson, Olds; F. G. Richards, Sturgeon Mission; G. E. Galt, De Winton; A. D. Floyd, Strathcona; C. G. Austin, Wetaskiwin; W. H. George, Lacombe.

The actual proceedings commenced with a choral evensong in the pro-cathedral on Tuesday at 8 at which the bishop preached his opening sermon. After a corporate celebration on Wednesday at 8 a.m., the conference met in the church schoolroom at 10 for business.

The conference listened with great interest to a number of exceedingly interesting papers read by several of the attending ministers.

A short business meeting was held each day during which the following resolutions were passed:—

1. That the bishop be asked to appoint the 6th of March, 1904, to be observed in the diocese in the interests of the Bible Society on the occasion of its Centenary as requested by it.
2. That the second Sunday in August, 1903, be observed in like manner.

It may not be generally known that we are in the Belting business but we are very much in it. We don't touch the cheap kind, but we sell the best grade of Leather Belting produced (Extra Brand). Single and double, all sizes. Once used, always used. Try it.

We have just unpacked our winter stock of Horse Blankets and Robes, and our showing easily surpasses anything ever offered in the City before. Thirty different kinds of Blankets, from the plain Jutes to the elaborate Stay-on's, and if we cannot suit you we have the satisfaction of knowing that nobody else can. We invite you to examine our stock.

Just a word about Trunks and Valises. We pay particular attention to these goods, and can say as a matter of fact without boasting that our stock is not only the largest but the best assorted in the city. Don't take our word, but come and look around. We have a carload arriving in a few days which will make our stock equal to anything west of Toronto, and that is saying a good deal. Trunks from $1.25 to $40. Valises from 75c to $15, and Suit Cases as high as $35. See our special Ladies' Dress Trunks, nobody else has them. These are all bought direct from the factory and the prices are right.

Don't overlook us when you need a good set of Harness. We take pride in turning out good work.
